Bequests and Donations to the University

The University welcomes assistance in the development of its educational responsibilities and in its involvement in community life. Bequests and donations are gratefully received and acknowledged according to the wishes of the benefactor.

The bequest or donation may be in the form of money, real estate, stock, shares or goods.

When writing a will, the University recommends that benefactors seek professional advice from a solicitor or trustee company. A bequest to the University may be made by intending benefactors as set out below:

I give to the University of Technology, Sydney, (my estate) or (portion/the residue of my estate) or (the sum of $......) free of all duties thereon and direct that it be applied for the purposes of the University in such manner as the Council of the University may determine.

Intending benefactors should clearly indicate any special conditions or requests. However, to avoid hampering the ‘real intent’ of any such gift, it is desirable that any special conditions or requests be expressed in general terms.

Where the bequest is in the form of shares or inscribed stock, appropriate provisions should be made to ensure future University access to the securities.

Taxation

The University of Technology, Sydney, is a registered organisation under section 78 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936. Donations of $2 or more by private individuals or organisations are allowable deductions for income tax purposes.

Estate duty

Bequests to the University are exempt from the payment of both Commonwealth Government and state estate duties.

Prizes, Awards and Scholarships

UTS Policy on the Award of Prizes

Prizes and scholarships are awarded each year to students in the University for meritorious work. These are made available through the generosity of private individuals and public organisations. They are offered each semester, annually or biennially. In rare instances, a prize or scholarship will be offered only when funds permit. Most prizes and scholarships are offered subject to the provision that they will be awarded only when a student has attained a mark or level of achievement considered by the Faculty Board concerned to be sufficiently high. In addition to these official University prizes and scholarships, it should be noted that a number of scholarships and prizes are available from external sources.

The University’s policy and procedures for the administration of prizes are published online at:

The University’s guidelines for the acceptance of new prizes are published online at:

Undergraduate Awards

Awards in this category are available to students in all faculties or those nominated.

Francis E Feledy Memorial Prize

This award was established by the staff of the British Motor Corporation as a memorial to the late Francis E Feledy for his work as an architect and engineer with that company. The award was first made available in 1966 through the then Department of Technical Education. In 1974, the then Institute became the Trustee of the fund. At the discretion of the Trustee, the prize is awarded annually to an outstanding part-time student entering his or her final year in each of the faculties of Engineering; Science; and Design, Architecture and Building. Each prize is valued at $600.

Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning – Bruce and Carol Kendall Undergraduate Memorial Scholarships

Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning offers six undergraduate scholarships of $1,000 each to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students studying at UTS. The closing date for applications is 5.00 p.m. on Friday 10 August 2007.

UTS Equity Scholarships

UTS provides a range of scholarships for students experiencing financial hardship, to assist their participation and success in higher education. In 2007 UTS will distribute:

• Commonwealth Educational Costs Scholarships (CECS) valued at approximately $2,080 per year for up to four years
• Commonwealth Accommodation Scholarships (CAS) valued at approximately $4,160 per year for up to four years
The scholarships are available to postgraduate students in all faculties.

Australian Postgraduate Awards (APA)

The Commonwealth Government offers a limited number of awards to support postgraduate research study at Australian universities each year. While these scholarships are intended to assist full-time students, part-time awards may be available to applicants who can demonstrate that they are unable to study full time due to a medical condition or primary carer responsibilities. Such reasons do not include the desire to continue full-time employment.

APAs are available to students enrolling in a Doctorate or Master’s degree by research, provided they meet the University’s eligibility criteria. Applicants should meet the following criteria: have completed four years of tertiary study with a high level of achievement, e.g. First Class Honours or equivalent; and be Australian citizens or have permanent resident status at the closing date for applications. Applications open in September and close at the end of October in the year before the applicant intends to commence study.

Applications open in August each year for both prospective and current students. Application forms are available online at:

POSTGRADUATE AWARDS

Awards in this category are available to postgraduate students in all faculties.

The Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan Awards (CSFP)

These awards are intended for postgraduate study or research, and are normally tenable in the United Kingdom, Canada, Hong Kong, India, Jamaica, Malaysia, Malta, Nigeria, Sri Lanka, and Trinidad and Tobago. The list of participating countries is subject to review each year. Applicants are advised to check with the University Graduate School or IDP Education Australia, the administering body, before proceeding with their application.

Applications are open to citizens of all overseas countries (excluding New Zealand), who are commencing full-time study for a higher degree by research at UTS.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and research capacity. The applicant’s intended area of study must be a research focus of the institution.
Scholarship benefits

The scholarship covers only the tuition fees set by UTS and is payable for each year of the course. The duration of the scholarship is normally limited to three years for students enrolled in PhD degree programs and two years for students enrolled in Master’s degree programs by research.

Holders of an IPRS are not permitted to receive concurrent assistance under Australian Government scholarship programs (e.g. the Australian Development Scholarship Scheme) or under programs to which the Australian Government makes a substantial financial contribution (such as the Fulbright Program).

The UTS President’s Scholarship (UTSP)

The UTS President’s Scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic merit and research potential and is offered, in rank order, to successful Endeavour International Postgraduate Research Scholarship (IPRS) applicants. It provides a living allowance to IPRS recipients. The number of scholarships offered may vary in any given year. The UTSP is available for full-time Master’s degree (Research) or Doctoral degree (Research) applicants. The conditions of the UTSP scholarship are based on those applicable to the Endeavour IPRS. The UTSP is not transferable to another institution. The value of a UTSP stipend is equal to the value of an Australian Postgraduate Award (APA), as offered to Australian students by the Department of Education, Science and Training.

David was an energetic and committed educator who ensured the subjects he coordinated combined academic excellence with business experience. His subjects reflected his philosophy on the emphasis of variety / multiple teaching stimuli in teaching methods and assessment approaches. In research, David had a high profile and focused on marketing strategy, services marketing, quality as a strategic dimension and health care delivery. He obtained a number of large research grants and published widely. In addition, he contributed strongly to the overall work of the School, the Faculty and the University. David willingly undertook leadership roles, served on various committees and initiated promotional activities, which achieved a number of important objectives. David’s outstanding contribution, intelligence, diligence, fairness, loyalty and strong commitment to excellence are sadly missed.

To honour David’s memory, and as testimony to the high regard in which he was held by his colleagues, this memorial prize was established to acknowledge his contribution to the School, the Faculty and the University. The cash prize of $1,000 is awarded to a student enrolled in either the Graduate Certificate in Marketing, the Graduate Diploma in Marketing or the Master of Business in Marketing, who obtains the highest aggregate mark in the subject Marketing Management.

Faculty awards

INSEARCH UTS Doctoral Award

As a result of the generous support of INSEARCH, the Faculty of Design, Architecture and Building is able to offer a full-time PhD scholarship to undertake research in the Faculty.

The scholarship has a cash value of $18,000 per year, is tax free, and may be supplemented by a limited amount of teaching and/or research assistant activity within the Faculty.

The award cannot be held in conjunction with an Australian Postgraduate Award (APA) or a UTS Doctoral Scholarship.

Jack Greenland Travelling Scholarship

This annual award commenced in 2002 and is aimed at encouraging students to explore the area of environmentally sustainable development within the broad discipline areas of design, architecture, property and building. The scholarship is open to students enrolled in any undergraduate course in the Faculty of Design, Architecture and Building and is judged on submitted portfolios of work covering the final two years of the applicant's course. The central ideas of the portfolio are to be related to 'environmentally sustainable development'.

The scholarship is decided by a panel of judges containing at least one UTS senior academic external to the Faculty, and the successful applicant is awarded with funds of up to $2,500 for a return economy flight to an international destination of their choice. The scholarship is open to students in the Bachelor of Architecture, Bachelor of Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Engineering in Civil and Environmental Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Architecture; or Bachelor of Construction. The award supports one of the key objectives of NAWIC, namely, to improve the participation and advancement of women in construction.

This award was established in 2004 to recognise the achievement of a female graduand in the following construction-related courses: Bachelor of Engineering in Construction Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Engineering in Civil Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Engineering in Civil and Environmental Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Architecture; or Bachelor of Construction. The award supports one of the key objectives of NAWIC, namely, to improve the participation and advancement of women in construction.

This award is presented to the female graduand who has obtained a high academic standard in her course, submitted a current résumé and the most outstanding original essay on a prescribed topic. The award winner receives $2,000 and a certificate.

School of Architecture

For those Architecture prizes awarded to a student obtaining the highest weighted average mark in a particular year, the following condition applies: the weighted average mark is calculated on the basis of all the core (compulsory) subjects undertaken for a particular year and completed in the academic year for which the prize is to be awarded. To be eligible, students must have completed a minimum of four of the core (compulsory) subjects for that year during the academic year for which they are to be considered.

Alexander and Lloyd Australia Design Prize

Alexander and Lloyd Pty Ltd, Architects, continue to support the efforts of the Faculty and to provide incentives to students with this award. It is awarded annually to the student obtaining the highest weighted average mark in Year 2 of the Architecture course. The prize is a cash award of $250.

These prizes are awarded to the students in each of the first three years of the course who, in the opinion of the Faculty, show outstanding achievement in the Bachelor of Arts in Architecture. The prizes are cash awards of $250.

The Edward Alexander Memorial Prize

This prize was established to honour the late Edward Alexander, who was a graduate of the East Sydney Architecture School and who contributed a great deal to the school's life and scholarship. It is awarded to the student enrolled in Year 1 of the Architecture course who attains the highest weighted average mark in the subjects 11211 Architectural Design – Thinking, Making and Inhabiting, and 11215 Architectural Design – Design Basics. The prize consists of a high-quality architectural publication and a Royal Australian Institute of Architects book voucher to the value of $250.

J J Greenland Prize for Excellence in the Field of Energy Conservation in Buildings

This prize is funded from the proceeds of the sale of Foundations of Architectural Science, written by Dr Jack Greenland, a former member of the School of Architecture. The prize is awarded to a student enrolled in the Architecture course who demonstrates excellence in the field of energy-efficient design in 11263 Integrated Environmental Design. It consists of a Royal Australian Institute of Architects book voucher to the value of $300.

The NSW Chapter of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects Prizes

The NSW Chapter of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects awards a prize and, in addition, administers, as Trustee, two Memorial Prizes which are awarded to students in Architecture. (These prizes are currently under review and subject to change.)

The Royal Australian Institute of Architects NSW Chapter Prize

This prize is awarded annually to the graduating student in Architecture with the highest weighted average mark over Years 4 and 5.

Tony Van Oene / Concrete Masonry Association of Australia Memorial Prize

This prize was established in 1992 from a donation received from the Concrete Masonry Association of Australia and the estate of Tony Van Oene, a former student of the School of Architecture. The prize is awarded to a student enrolled in the Architecture course who achieves the highest weighted average mark in 11251 Architectural Design – Urban Architecture, 11254 Architectural Design – Complex and Public Buildings and 11261 Architectural Design – Thematic Design. It consists of a Royal Australian Institute of Architects book voucher to the value of $360.

William Edmund Kemp Memorial Prize

A fund was established to perpetuate the memory of William Edmund Kemp and his services as an architect with the Department of Education, in connection with Architecture and Technical Education in NSW. Mr Kemp designed the original buildings and workshops of Sydney.
Technical College at Ultimo and the Museum of Applied Arts and Sciences. The prize is awarded annually to the student who gains the highest weighted average mark in Year 3 of the Architecture course. The fund provides a medal and a cash prize of $300.

School of the Built Environment

AMP Land Economists Prize
This prize is awarded to a full-time student enrolled in the Bachelor of Property Economics who obtains the highest weighted average mark on completion of the subjects in Year 2 of the full-time program. This prize has a cash value of $500.

The Australian Institute of Building, NSW Chapter Medal
This award was established in 1987. It is presented to the graduating student from the Construction Management degree course who achieves the highest weighted average mark. The prize consists of a certificate and an inscribed medal.

Australian Institute of Construction Estimators Prize
This prize is awarded to the Construction Economics student who achieves the highest weighted average mark in the subjects in the second half of the undergraduate course. The prize has a cash value of $250.

The Australian Institute of Quantity Surveyors (NSW Chapter) Prize
The NSW Chapter of the Australian Institute of Quantity Surveyors (AIQS) offers a prize each year to the student who gains the highest weighted average mark in the subjects in the second half of the undergraduate course. The award comprises a sum of $500 plus one year’s associate membership of the AIQS, including the entrance fee, where the recipient is eligible.

Australian Property Institute Gold Medal
This prize was established in 1991 by the Australian Institute of Valuers and Land Economists. It is awarded to the student enrolled in the Property Economics degree course who completes the degree with the best aggregate mark in Valuation subjects. The prize takes the form of a certificate, a gold medal and a cash award of $300.

Australian Property Institute Year Prizes
These prizes were established in 1991 by the Australian Institute of Valuers and Land Economists. The prizes are awarded to six students enrolled in the Property Economics degree course who performed best in the six years of the course as described by the part-time program. The six prizes each have a cash value of $300.

CSR Hebel Prize
The CSR Hebel Prize is awarded to the student who obtains the highest mark in the subject 16075 Sustainable Building Technology. The prize consists of a cheque for $500 plus a certificate.

Grosvenor Australia Properties Prize in Project Management
This prize is awarded to the student in the second-year cohort who, in the opinion of the students in the second year of the Project Management Program, has contributed most to the progress of the cohort as a whole. The prize has a cash value of $500.

Grosvenor Australia Properties Prize in Urban Estate Management
This prize is awarded to the student in the second-year cohort who, in the opinion of the students in the second year of the Urban Estate Management Program, has contributed most to the progress of the cohort as a whole. The prize has a cash value of $500.

The Investec Bank Scholarship Award
This prize is awarded annually to a student who has completed 48 credit points towards the Bachelor of Property Economics and achieved a weighted average mark of at least 70, and completed the subject 16236 Property Cash Flow Analysis. The winner is chosen by a selection committee as having the most synergy with the ethos of Investec Bank, on the basis of their curriculum vitae and an interview. The winner receives $1,000, six weeks’ work experience with Investec Bank in the Investment Banking division and a $9,000 scholarship paid during work experience, if a letter of employment is offered.

The Landcom Planning Prize
This prize is awarded annually to the student producing the best Graduate Project in the Master of Planning course. The prize has a cash value of $500.

The Macquarie Goodman Scholarship Award
This award was established in 1987. It is presented to the graduating student from the Property Economics course. The prize has a cash value of $300.

The RICS Construction Prize
This prize is awarded to the student who achieves the highest weighted average mark in their first year of the Construction course. The prize has a cash value of $300.

Rider Hunt High Achievement Award
Rider Hunt of Sydney offers an annual award for the Construction Economics student who achieves the highest weighted average mark in the undergraduate course, subject to that student having a satisfactory performance in the year for which the award is given. The weighted average mark is calculated in the same manner as that used in the consideration of Honours. The award has a cash value of $500.
School of Design

The ABL Fashion and Textile Award

This award was instigated by Australian Business Limited (ABL) in 2003 to support new graduates of the Bachelor of Design in Fashion and Textiles. $10,000 is awarded to a final-year student who has a winning combination of academic achievement, innovative design skills and business sense. The winner receives invaluable support setting up their own small business practice when they leave the University.

The Carl Nielsen Professional Development Award

This annual award aims to assist recent graduates in Industrial Design at UTS to visit leading overseas industrial design groups and manufacturing companies noted for their commitment to high standards of product design. It is granted to the applicant judged the most capable of taking advantage of the opportunities it may provide to advance his or her future professional standing as an industrial designer in Australia.

Written applications from graduates of the previous five years are accepted up to March 31. The amount of the award is $2,000, which is available for collection from the Faculty on presentation of a final travel schedule and copies of correspondence confirming invitations and arrangements for visits to nominated design groups/companies.

The Designworks Enterprise I.G. Award

This award has been created to assist high-performing undergraduate students in their final semester of study, and to give them an opportunity to work in an international design group.

The student in the Bachelor of Design in Visual Communication judged to have the most creative potential will be awarded a $2,000 cash prize and the opportunity to undertake part-time paid employment during their final 24 credit points of study, and, on successful completion of their degree, a period of 12 months’ full-time paid employment.

Lancome Colour Design Awards

Three annual Lancome Colour Design Awards will be awarded in 2007, one each in the categories of Colour and Texture, Innovation, and Modern Femininity. One bursary of $5,000 will be awarded by Lancome to a winner in each category. The winners will be those students judged to have best met a brief given to all fourth-year Fashion and Textiles students, in the creation of a womenswear collection based on Lancome’s seasonal make-up look. The winners will be judged by a panel including the Fashion and Textiles Course Director, a representative of Lancome and at least one representative of the fashion industry.

The Redant Creative Web Award

This award is offered to those students who have completed 120 credit points towards the Bachelor of Design in Visual Communication with a grade point average of five or above in the two third-year VC Technologies options and second- and third-year VC Project subjects. The award is made available to the student who is judged, through their portfolio and interview, to have the most creative and practical approach to design for web media. The award comprises a $500 cash prize and paid part-time employment over the final part of the student’s third year and first semester of fourth year. The award winner will be encouraged to arrange the period of employment so that it contributes to the subjects VC Project – The Community and VC Project – Self Direction.

The Toynbee Wilson Typography Prize

This prize is awarded to encourage and reward excellence in typographic study and practice undertaken in the first two years of the Bachelor of Design in Visual Communication. The six students with the highest grade point average in the typography subjects taken in their first and second years are each awarded a $250 book voucher.

Woods Bagot Scholarship in Interior Design

This scholarship is awarded to a student enrolled in Year 3 of the Bachelor of Design in Interior Design who has completed all requirements for Years 1 and 2 and has demonstrated academic excellence and the ability to recognise the relationship between academic studies and the needs of the profession. The scholarship is tenable for two years and has a cash value of $2,000.

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

The AITD Award

The Australian Institute for Training and Development (AITD) is a national professional association of people interested in the field of human resource development. AITD seeks to promote excellence in this field through conferences, workshops and the dissemination of information. As part of its interest in professional development, AITD has donated two prizes to the Faculty of Education.

The first AITD award is given to the student who is judged to have presented the best thesis project of the Bachelor of Education (Honours) in Adult Education.

The second AITD award is open to all final-year students enrolled in the Bachelor of Education in Adult Education with the Human Resource Development major. The award is given to the student who is judged to have made the most significant contribution to the human resource development field of adult education as part of their studies.

The Gwen Muir Memorial Prize for Special Education

This prize was established in 1993 in memory of the late Gwen Muir, a teacher who had a lifelong commitment to the education of students with special needs. The prize was donated by Margaret Zell, a daughter of George Muir, a former Principal of the Kuring-gai College of Advanced Education, to reward excellence in the field of special education. The cash prize of $250 is awarded annually to a student from the Bachelor of Education in Special Education (C10207) who has the most distinguished academic record and who has demonstrated excellence in the practicum.
The Kevin Dawes Prize
This prize may be awarded annually to the most outstanding student in the science elective strand in the Bachelor of Education in Primary Education. If there is no science elective strand offered, then the prize is awarded to the student with the highest combined mark in the two subjects in the science education sequence in the Bachelor of Education in Primary Education (C10206). The annual cash value of the prize is $250.

The Laurie Brady Award for Teaching Excellence
Laurie Brady has been a long-serving member of the Faculty of Education, initially at Kuring-gai College of Advanced Education, and then at UTS, and has devoted his working life to practising and promoting quality teaching.

The award is offered each year to the student studying the Bachelor of Education in Primary Education who has displayed outstanding teaching ability in the school classroom (field-based practicum). The cash value of the prize is $300.

The NSW Adult Literacy and Numeracy Award
The NSW Adult Literacy and Numeracy Council is the peak professional body representing teachers, workers and others interested in the field of adult literacy and numeracy in NSW. It was established in the late 1970s and is affiliated with the Australian Council of Adult Literacy.

This prize is awarded to the graduating student in the Bachelor of Education in Adult Education who demonstrates achievement in one of the following: evidence of excellent academic achievements in the course generally, and more specifically in subjects in the Language, Literacy and Numeracy major; or evidence of significant contributions to the field of adult language, literacy and numeracy education through excellent teaching practice and effective innovations in program development.

The award consists of $100, publication of a piece of work in the Council’s publication, an opportunity to present the work at a Council forum, and one-year membership of the Council.

The Phillips Prize
This prize is awarded to the graduand of the Bachelor of Education in Adult Education with the most outstanding academic and professional record in the vocational education field of practice. This prize commemorates the distinguished contribution made by Donald Phillips to the development of technical teacher education in NSW; as a teacher, technical college principal, Assistant Director of the Department of Technical and Further Education, and as a member of the First Council of Sydney Teachers’ College. The first award was made in 1981 to a graduand of the Diploma of Teaching program. The annual cash value of the prize is $250.

The Sydney Mechanics’ School of Arts Award
This award was established in 1990 from a donation of $15,000 from the Sydney Mechanics’ School of Arts. It is available to graduates of the Bachelor of Education in Adult Education who demonstrate superior achievement in academic studies and adult education practice. The annual cash value of the award is $1,000.

University Medal
The University Medal is awarded for the most outstanding undergraduate First Class Honours Thesis. Note: the Faculty’s prizes and awards are currently under review; this review may affect prizes offered in 2007.

FACULTY OF ENGINEERING
A number of prizes and scholarships for academic excellence are awarded to students enrolled in the Faculty of Engineering. Prizes are awarded in respect of each academic year and are presented annually at a Faculty ceremony. These prizes are made available through the generosity of private individuals and organisations in the public and private sector.

All prizes described here are subject to an annual review. Existing prizes may be withdrawn without notice and new prizes added.

Endowments
James N Kirby Chair of Manufacturing Engineering
In 1983, the James N Kirby Foundation commenced a series of donations to the Faculty of Engineering Development Fund towards the establishment of a Chair in an area relating to the manufacturing industry. The capital fund to support the Chair was built up over some 12 years and is now expected to be capable of providing a substantial annual contribution in perpetuity.

Through the Foundation’s generosity, the Council of UTS was able to establish the James N Kirby Chair of Manufacturing Engineering in 1988. The inaugural professor, Dr Frank Swinkels, was appointed in 1989 and took up duty in 1990. Dr Swinkels had previously been Director of the University’s Centre for Industrial Technology.

Prizes
Aim Products Prize
This award was established in 2000 by donations from Aim Products Australia Pty Ltd. The prize is awarded each semester to the student with the best performance in each of the following subjects: 48210 Engineering for Sustainability; 48510 Introduction to Electrical Engineering; 48520 Electronics and Circuits; and 48441 Introductory Digital Systems. The prize consists of a cash award of $250.

Association of Consulting Structural Engineers (ACSE) Design Award
Note: This award is subject to final confirmation by ACSE and the Faculty Board in Engineering.

This award comprises work experience in three different overseas structural consulting firms over a six-week period, with airfares paid and $6,000 for living expenses provided. The selected student will, upon return, be required to submit a 1,000-word report to ACSE describing his or her experiences. The student will be selected from a group of students nominated by six universities in NSW. The nominee will be a final-year student selected for his or her outstanding structural engineering design project. The project must be undertaken in the year in which the award is made and the nominated student must be intending to practise as a structural engineer after graduation.

C R Kennedy Prize

This prize was established in 1986 as the Leica Instruments Prize. In 2000 it was renamed the C R Kennedy Prize and is awarded to the student who obtains the highest mark in the Surveying Practical Test. If the Practical Test is not conducted in either semester of the year for which the award is made, the prize is awarded to the student who has obtained the highest aggregate mark in the subject 48320 Surveying. The prize is an instrument chosen by the company.

CSE-Uniserve Power Engineering Prize

Note: This prize is currently under review.

This prize, donated by CSE-Uniserve Pty Ltd, is awarded on merit to the student who has achieved at least a Credit average across four subjects in the Electrical Engineering major (Electrical Energy Technology, Signals and Systems, Circuit Analysis, Electro Mechanical Systems), completed at least 48 credit points, completed the first internship (or equivalent), and applied directly for this award by the application due date. The prize consists of a cash award of $2,500 and a certificate.

Dean’s Award for Outstanding Academic Performance

This award is awarded on an annual basis after the completion of the Dean’s list. Eligible students are selected from the Dean’s list for the award when they undertake a specified minimum number of credit points in the preceding year (typically 36 credit points, or half this number for students who commence mid-year) and achieve a weighted average mark (WAM) across all engineering subjects which is equal to, or greater than, a given threshold. The credit point minimum and the WAM threshold are determined by the Dean on an annual basis. The award consists of a certificate and a letter of commendation.

Dean’s Capstone Presentation Award and Alan Chappel Engineering Innovation Prize

These prizes are awarded to the student who gives the best oral presentation from a group of candidates chosen from each of the Capstone Project majors, and to the student whose work is judged as the most significant engineering innovation from the Capstone Projects, respectively. Each engineering major selects and nominates one candidate who has achieved at least a Distinction for their Capstone Student presentation in their individual major. The selected students are required to give an additional 15-minute presentation at the IAN/Dean’s Capstone Presentation Award event, attended by industry representatives and UTS staff. The prizes are judged by a panel of independent non-academics. The Dean’s prize consists of an engraved plaque, Dean’s Prize Certificate and $500 cash; the Alan Chappel Engineering Innovation Prize consists of a certificate and $500 cash.

Eldred G Bishop Prize

This prize was established in 1974 to commemorate the leadership of Eldred George Bishop in improving the standard and quality of manufacturing engineering in Sydney. It is awarded to a student who is an Australian citizen, generally entering his or her final year of studies towards the Bachelor of Engineering degree in one of the following majors: Computer Systems Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, or Mechanical and Mechatronic Engineering. Selection is by invitation initially, followed by a written application and an interview. No candidate may be considered for the prize more than once. The prize consists of a commemorative trophy and a cash award of $2,000.

Electric Energy Society of Australia

Since 1976 the Electric Energy Society of Australia has offered encouragement, by way of an annual cash award of $250, to Electrical Engineering students. The purpose of the prize is to attract the interest of students in pursuing a course which enables them to become engineers in the electric power distribution industry. The prize is awarded to a sandwich pattern or part-time student who achieves best performance in the subject 48550 Electrical Energy Technology.

Energy Australia Prize in Power Engineering

This prize was established in 1986 and is awarded annually to the student who completes the requirements of the Electrical Engineering degree course and who obtains the highest weighted average mark after completion of the Electrical Engineering degree. The cash value of the prize is $250 and is subject to periodic review for the purpose of maintaining its real value.

Engineers Australia Civil and Structural Panel (Sydney Division) Prize

This prize is to be awarded annually to the student who achieves, at his or her first attempt, the highest mark in the subject 48389 Computer Modelling and Design. The prize will not be awarded if no candidate reaches the approved level. The prize is to have a total value of $500, comprising a suitably inscribed book(s) to the value of approximately $200 and the residue as a cheque for the purchase of engineering equipment of the student’s choice.

The George J Haggarty Civil Engineering Prize

Note: This prize is currently under review.

In 1981 the George J Haggarty Student Endowment Fund was established to commemorate the significant contribution made by the Foundation Head, School of Civil Engineering, to engineering education. From the Fund, the George J Haggarty Civil Engineering Prize is awarded annually to a student in the Civil, Civil and Environmental, or Construction Engineering major who, at his or her first attempt, achieves the highest aggregate mark in the subject 48389 Construction Materials. The prize is a cash award of $200.

Hanson Prize

This prize was established in 1987 by Hanson Pty Ltd (formerly Pioneer Concrete NSW). It is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Civil, Civil and Environmental, or Construction Engineering major who achieves, at his or her first attempt, the highest aggregate mark in the subject 48352 Construction Materials. The prize has a cash value of $500.

The Institute of Instrumentation, Control and Automation, Australia Prizes

This prize was established in 1992 by the Institute of Instrumentation and Control, Australia. The prize may be awarded each academic year but is not awarded unless a candidate reaches a level acceptable to the Faculty Board in Engineering. The prize is awarded to Mechanical Engineering and Electrical Engineering students.

The recipient of the prize in Mechanical Engineering shall satisfy the following conditions: he or she must have been a registered student in the Mechanical Engineering degree course during the year for which the award is made; and he or she must have achieved the best performance in the subject 48660 Dynamics and Control.

The recipient of the prize in Electrical Engineering shall satisfy the following conditions: he or she must have been an enrolled student in the Electrical Engineering or Computer Systems Engineering major during the year for which the award is made; and he or she must have achieved the best performance in the subject 48560 Analogue and Digital Control.

Each prize is a cash award of $250.

The Institute of Public Works Engineering Australia NSW Division Medal

This prize was established in 1975. It is awarded annually to the student, in either part-time study or sandwich mode, with the best overall academic performance in the Civil or Civil and Environmental Engineering degree course and who is employed by a Local Government Authority at the time of completing the course. The recipient must have been employed by a Local Government Authority for at least three semesters during the period of his or her course. The award comprises $500 cash and a medal.

Institution of Engineering and Technology Prize

This prize is offered by the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) (formerly the Institution of Electrical Engineers (IEE)) in the United Kingdom to institutions in which degree programs have been mutually accredited by Engineers Australia and the IET. It was established at UTS in 1991. The prize may be awarded in respect of each academic year but will not be awarded if no candidate reaches a level acceptable to the Faculty Board in Engineering. The prize is awarded to a graduating Mechanical Engineering student on the basis of outstanding performance in the final-year project. It consists of a certificate, a cash prize of $400 and two years’ free membership of IET.

Institution of Engineering and Technology – E C Parkinson Prize

The Sydney section of the Institution of Manufacturing Engineers donated a sum of money in 1964 to be used to establish a prize for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the late E C Parkinson, a distinguished production engineer and, for many years, a senior executive of the AWA company. Since 1970 the prize has been awarded to a student of the University. The prize is awarded annually to a graduating student with a Mechanical Engineering major, on the basis of the highest aggregate mark in the subjects studied in the student’s last semester. Only students who undertake 18 credit points or more in their last semester are eligible. The prize is a certificate and a book allowance of $250.

Institution of Engineering and Technology – Manufacturing Engineering Prize

This prize is offered by the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) (formerly the Institution of Electrical Engineers (IEE)) in the United Kingdom to institutions in which degree programs have been mutually accredited by Engineers Australia and the IET. It was established at UTS in 1991. The prize may be awarded in respect of each academic year but will not be awarded if no candidate reaches a level acceptable to the Faculty Board in Engineering. The prize is awarded to a graduating Mechanical Engineering student on the basis of outstanding performance in the final-year project. It consists of a certificate, a cash prize of $400 and two years’ free membership of IET.

Iplex Pipelines Award

Iplex Pipelines is one of Australia’s largest manufacturers and distributors of pipes and pipe fittings made from plastic materials for infrastructure pipelines. The company is particularly concerned with improving engineering practices involving the use of these ‘flexible’ pipelines for civil and environmental engineering projects, including pipe hydraulics; pipe technology; soils and their interactions with pipes; construction activities related to pipe laying or trenching; and environmental aspects of construction or pipe-laying activities.

This award is presented annually to the student, or team of students, obtaining the highest mark in the subject Capstone Project for a project related to the company’s main areas of interest. It may not be awarded in any given year if a suitable topic is not undertaken or if an acceptable standard in a suitable topic is not achieved. The decision as to the suitability of topics is made by Iplex Pipelines, while the decision as to the standard achieved is made by the Faculty of Engineering staff. The award consists of a cash prize of $1,000.

Jack Kaganer Prize

Note: This prize is currently under review.

This prize was established in 1991 by donations from the family and friends of the late Jack Kaganer to commemorate his long and distinguished service to what was then the School of Civil Engineering of the NSW Institute of Technology. Jack Kaganer was the second member of staff to join the School of Civil Engineering and played an important role in its development until his retirement at the end of 1984. The prize is awarded annually to a student registered in either the Civil, Civil and Environmental, or Construction Engineering major during the year in which the award is made, and who achieves, at his or her first attempt, the highest aggregate mark in the subject 48359 Structural Design 1. The prize is a cash award of $250.

The John Heine Memorial Foundation Prizes

Note: This prize is currently under review.

The Metal Trades Industry Association of Australia (MITIA) established the John Heine Memorial Foundation in 1950 in memory of John Heine who did much to advance the cause of the metal trades industry. In 1971 the Foundation decided to give support and encouragement to students by awarding prizes annually to an outstanding first, second and third-year student in the Mechanical Engineering major of the Bachelor of Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice degree. The prize is awarded on the basis of the aggregate mark in all subjects studied during the year for which the award is made. The prizes are in the form of cash awards to help students cover costs for books and equipment for use in connection with their early years of study at UTS. Three prizes are awarded in total. Each prize has a cash award of $500.
The John Heine Memorial Foundation Continuing Education Prize
Note: This prize is currently under review and subject to approval.
The Metal Trades Industry Association of Australia (MTIA) established the John Heine Memorial Foundation in 1950 in memory of John Heine who did much to advance the cause of the metal trades industry. The Foundation offers support and encouragement to students by awarding a major prize annually to a high performing student enrolled in the first three years of study in the Bachelor of Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice degree, majoring in either Mechanical Engineering or Mechanical and Mechatronics Engineering, Selection is by invitation initially, followed by a written application and an interview, which will address criteria such as leadership in engineering, community service, academic achievement and other personal attributes. The prize has a total value of $5,000 to help students cover costs of their continuing education and study.

National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) Award
This award was established in 2004 to recognise the achievement of a female graduand in a construction-related course at UTS (i.e. the Bachelor of Engineering in Construction Engineering, Civil Engineering or Civil and Environmental Engineering, Diploma in Engineering Practice; Bachelor of Architecture; Bachelor of Construction; Bachelor of Building in Construction Management; or Bachelor of Building in Construction Economics) in a field which is non-traditional for women. The award supports one of the key objectives of NAWIC, to improve the participation and advancement of women in construction. This award is presented to the female graduand who has obtained a high academic standard in her course, submitted a current curriculum vitae and submitted the most outstanding original essay on a prescribed topic. The award consists of a cash prize of $2,000 and a certificate.

Richard Whitfield Prize for Industrial Experience
This prize was established in 1992 by the Computer Systems Engineering Forum. In 1997 it was re-named in honour of the late Richard Whitfield, an eminent figure in the computer industry and an active contributor to the work of the Faculty.
The prize may be awarded each academic year but is not awarded if no candidate reaches a level acceptable to the Faculty Board in Engineering. The recipient shall satisfy the following conditions: he or she must have been an enrolled student in the Computer Systems Engineering major during the entire calendar year for which the award is made; and he or she must have the highest mark in the subject 48142 Engineering Practice Review 2.
In selecting the prize winner, account is taken of industrial experience log books, reports, submissions from employers and any other relevant material. The criteria include appropriateness of experience, engineering excellence, technical ability, communication skills, quality of report and degree of innovation shown during the work experience. The prize is in the form of a certificate and a cash award of $500.

RS Components Pty Ltd Prize
This prize was established in 1996 by RS Components Pty Ltd, an organisation which firmly believes in the principles of a strong technical education. The prize is awarded to a final-year student in Electrical Engineering who has achieved the highest level of academic excellence or who has conducted the best final-year project. The prize consists of an instrument or a combination of instruments to the value of $500 and a commemorative certificate from the company.

Society of Manufacturing Engineers (Stage 5) Prize
This prize is awarded annually to the student who achieves, at his or her first attempt, the highest mark in the subject 48663 Advanced Manufacturing. The prize is not awarded if no candidate reaches the approved level. The prize is a cash award of $250 together with one year’s free membership of the Society and a framed certificate.

Society of Manufacturing Engineers (Stage 8) Prize
Note: This prize is currently under review.
The Society of Manufacturing Engineers has supported this prize since the early 1970s. It is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Mechanical Engineering or Manufacturing Engineering degree course who obtains the highest mark in the subject 48012 Capstone Project (12cp) for a thesis on a manufacturing engineering topic. The prize is a cash award of $250 together with one year’s free membership of the Society and a framed certificate.

Trevor Buchner Design Prize
Note: This prize is currently under review.
This prize was established in 1988 from a Trust Fund set up in recognition of the contribution and distinguished service of Trevor Buchner, the first academic member of staff of the School of Civil Engineering. The prize is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Civil, Civil and Environmental, or Construction Engineering major, who achieves the highest aggregate mark, at his or her first attempt, in the subject 48349 Structural Analysis. The prize has a cash value of $200.

The Victor E Shalala Memorial Achievement Award
The Victor E Shalala Memorial Achievement Award was established by the Shalala family in 2005, the year in which Victor Shalala would have completed his Civil Engineering studies. It is a memorial to Victor Shalala who died in 2002 while an undergraduate student of Civil Engineering at UTS. The Shalala family wishes to recognise high achievement by a UTS Civil Engineering student as a memorial to their son. The award is donated annually by the Shalala family and is awarded to the BE student in the Civil Engineering major who graduates with the highest weighted average mark. The prize consists of $300 and a certificate.

Zonta Club of Sydney Breakfast Award
This award was established in 2003 to provide financial support to a female student enrolled in engineering as a discipline that is non-traditional for women. The award supports one of the key objectives of Zonta International – to improve the economic and educational status of women around the world.
This award is presented to the first-year female student who has obtained a high academic standard in her first-year subjects, demonstrated her commitment to supporting women in engineering and submitted the most outstanding essay on her experience of engineering and ideas about how to increase the participation of women. The award winner receives $1,000 and a certificate.
Undergraduate scholarships

Engineering Cooperative Scholarship Program

Availability

Engineering Cooperative Scholarships will be awarded in 2007 to students who are successful candidates at the 2006 NSW Higher School Certificate examinations (or equivalent) and who are either Australian citizens or permanent Australian residents. Awards are made only to those who satisfy the requirements for admission to the Bachelor of Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice.

These scholarships are not normally available for combined or double degree programs.

Sponsors

The scholarships are made possible by gifts made to the University by industry sponsors engaged in a variety of engineering endeavours. A total tax-free stipend ranging from $11,000 for one year to $48,000 over five years is provided to students whose performance in their undergraduate studies is satisfactory under the conditions of award of the Engineering Cooperative Scholarships Program.

For 2007, the Faculty acknowledges the commitment and generous sponsorship of the Engineering Cooperative Scholarship Program by the following organisations and donors:

• ADI Limited
• Alcatel Australia Limited
• Barclay Mowlem Construction Ltd
• Bishop Innovation Ltd
• CISCO Systems Australia Pty Ltd
• INSEARCH Ltd
• Keycorp Ltd
• RailCorp
• Raytheon Australia Pty Ltd
• Roads and Traffic Authority (RTA)
• Robert Bird and Partners Ltd
• Sydney Water
• TransGrid.

Duration and payments

The scholarships are designed to provide students with some financial assistance during their university studies. The real value of the Cooperative Scholarships is the opportunity to meet, develop relationships and establish links with the industry sponsors that lead to opportunities of two six-month periods of paid internship during the second and fourth years of the course. The $11,000 scholarship is paid during the first year of the course. The RTA full-degree scholarships are for the full five years and the $48,000 scholarship is paid over the duration of the scholarship. An initial payment of 25 per cent of the total annual stipend is made at the time of enrolment. Subsequent payments, during the first year, are scheduled at the end of Autumn and Spring semesters, subject to satisfactory performance (Credit average or above).

Personal requirements

Scholars are selected jointly by the University and scholarship sponsors on the basis of a combination of academic achievements and personal attributes relevant to a career in professional engineering, such as an interest in engineering, communication skills, leadership and creativity.

Academic requirements

Competition for scholarships is strong and a good showing against the criteria at the interview is essential for success. A Universities Admission Index of 90 or above is then required to confirm selection. All interested students with good academic results are encouraged to apply.

Applications and interviews

Applications can be made directly on the web or by written application. Application forms are available from high school careers advisers or by contacting the Faculty. The closing date is normally in the last week of September. Applicants who are short-listed and wish to proceed further are required to attend an interview at UTS. Interviews are generally held on the last Tuesday in November and cannot be re-scheduled. However, different arrangements apply to the RTA Rural Engineering Scholarships.

Conditions of award

Conditions of award applying to individual scholarships are consistent with this information and are advised when the offer is made.

The Engineering and International Studies Cooperative Scholarship

The Engineering and International Studies Cooperative Scholarship was established in 2002. The scholarship is awarded on merit to a high-achieving current school leaver commencing studies in the Bachelor of Engineering Bachelor of Arts in International Studies Diploma in Engineering Practice. Merit-ranking of applicants is in accordance with the University’s selection criteria for entry to cooperative scholarships. Applicants must be either Australian citizens or permanent residents. The value of the scholarship is $11,000 for the year, subject to satisfactory progress (currently under review).

Keycorp Engineering Equity Scholarship in memory of Gil Rintoul

There are two Keycorp Engineering Equity Scholarships available in 2007 and they are valued at $5,000 each. These scholarships are only available for the Bachelor of Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice with a major in ICT Engineering. Applicants need to achieve a sufficient Universities Admission Index to meet the course entrance requirements and also need to apply for an equity scholarship through Universities Admission Centre.

The Linden Little Engineering Equity Scholarship

The Linden Little Engineering Equity Scholarship was established in 2001. The scholarship is awarded on merit to a current school leaver from among applicants recognised by UTS as disadvantaged. Applicants must be either Australian citizens or permanent residents. Disadvantage is established with reference to indicators of socioeconomic, physical or educational hardship established by the applicant’s eligibility under the Universities Admission Centre (UAC) Equity Scholarships Scheme. Educational hardship may apply to applicants from country schools. Applicants need to complete an application for a Cooperative Scholarship (see above) and also apply for an Equity Scholarship through UAC. They need to achieve a sufficient Universities Admission Index to meet the course entrance requirements, a lower requirement than for the Cooperative Scholarships. However, disadvantaged students who are successful in being awarded a Cooperative Scholarship are not considered further for this scholarship as its aim is to assist a student who would not otherwise have received that opportunity. The scholarship has a total value of $22,000 and is awarded to a commencing student over a period of two years, subject to satisfactory progress.

The RTA Rural Engineering Scholarships
In 2007, UTS Engineering in conjunction with the RTA will be offering 20 scholarships to applicants who are current school leavers living in rural or regional NSW (according to ASGC classification) and who are offered a place in the Bachelor of Engineering Diploma in Engineering Practice. These scholarships will be offered to potential Civil, and Civil and Environmental major students. The scholarship has a value of $48,000 and is awarded to commencing students for a period of five years, subject to satisfactory progress. Interviews for these scholarships will be held at a number of rural RTA centres. The location for interviews will be confirmed at the time of short listing.

Faculty of Science
Prizes and scholarships are awarded each year to students in the Faculty for meritorious work. These are made available through the generosity of private individuals and public organisations. They are offered each semester, annually or biennially. In rare instances, a prize or scholarship is offered only when funds permit. Most prizes and scholarships are offered subject to the provision that they are awarded only when a student has attained a mark or level of achievement considered by the Faculty Board to be sufficiently high. In addition to these official University prizes and scholarships, it should be noted that there are available a number of prizes and scholarships from external sources for which University students can compete. Information about these prizes and scholarships appears from time to time on official noticeboards. Students should note that the conditions of the awards listed below are being reviewed and may be subject to change.

Dean’s Merit List for Academic Excellence
The Faculty wishes to formally recognise outstanding performance by its students through the awarding of prizes, medals and the grading of degrees. The Dean’s Merit List endeavours to formally acknowledge outstanding academic achievement throughout a student’s course of study. The Faculty publishes a list of students who have been placed on the Dean’s Merit List. Each student also receives a certificate to this effect. To be listed, a student usually needs to undertake a normal load, achieve an average mark for the year of 85 per cent or above and be recommended by the relevant Examination Review Committee in December each year.

University medals
Students who meet the minimum requirement for the award of a University Medal are considered by the Faculty Medals Committee. According to University policy, the number of medals awarded in any one year by the Faculty is limited.

Prizes
3M Australia Prize
Established in 2002, this prize is awarded annually to the student who obtains the highest aggregate mark in the subject 65410 Chemical Safety and Legislation. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate together with a book allowance to the value of $250, plus one year’s membership of the Australian Acupuncture Association Limited.

Aglent Technologies Prize for Most Competent Analytical Chemist
This prize was established in 2004 and is awarded annually to the student who has demonstrated the most outstanding practical skills in the subject 65606 Analytical Chemistry 3. The main focus of the practical component of this subject is to consolidate the skills that the students have learnt and practised throughout the analytical strand. The students are required to research, develop and implement an instrumental analytical method. This prize recognises leadership, excellent standard and sample preparation, and initiative to promote understanding and operation of the instrumentation. The prize is valued at $500.

Australasian Association of Clinical Biochemists (NSW/ACT Branch) Prize
This prize was established in 1995 by the NSW / ACT Branch of the Australasian Association of Clinical Biochemists, initially for students in a postgraduate course. It is now offered annually to the student in an undergraduate course in the Faculty who has gained the highest weighted average mark in the subjects 91313 Biomolecules: Structure and Function, 91320 Metabolic Biochemistry, 91326 Analytical Biochemistry, 91344 Medical and Diagnostic Biochemistry and 91345 Biochemistry, Genes and Disease, provided that the weighted average mark is not less than 70 per cent. The prize consists of a suitably inscribed plaque, a cash award of $200 and one year’s membership of the Australasian Association of Clinical Biochemists.

Australasian Ceramic Society Award
Established in 1986, this is awarded annually to the student who, when undertaking a research project in the area of ceramics, obtains the highest average mark in stages 1, 2, 3 and 4. The cash value of the award is $400.

The Australian Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine Association Prize
This prize is awarded to the graduating student from the Bachelor of Health Science in Traditional Chinese Medicine course who obtains the highest average mark for all the subjects in the course. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate together with a book allowance to the value of $250, plus one year’s membership of the Australian Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine Association Limited.

Australasian Institute of Medical Scientists’ Bruce Munro Prize
This prize was established in 2005 by the NSW Branch of the Australian Institute of Medical Laboratory Scientists to honour one of the Institute’s life members. It is offered annually to the students in the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Biomedical Science and Bachelor of Medical Science (Honours) and is awarded to the student who attains the highest mark in the honours program. The prize consists of a cash award of $250 and a one-year subscription to Path Report.

Australasian Institute of Medical Scientists’ Curtis Hill Prize in Clinical Bacteriology
This prize was established in 1983 by the NSW Branch of the Australian Institute of Medical Laboratory Scientists. It is offered annually to students enrolled in the Biomedical Science course who take the AIMS Accredited Program of Study and is awarded to the student who obtains the highest mark in the subject 91338 Clinical Bacteriology. The prize consists of a cash award of $250 and a one-year subscription to Path Report.

Australasian Institute of Medical Scientists’ Jim Ruxton Prize in Haematology
This prize was established in 1983 by the NSW Branch of the Australian Institute of Medical Laboratory Scientists. It is offered annually to students enrolled in one of the Biological and Biomedical Science courses and is awarded to the student who obtains the highest mark in 91358 Haematology 2. The prize consists of a cash award of $250 and a one-year subscription to Path Report.
Australian Institute of Medical Scientists’ Leonard J Lawler Prize
This prize is presented by the Australian Institute of Medical Laboratory Scientists in dedication to the past services of Leonard J Lawler to the NSW Branch of the Institute. Over a long period, Mr Lawler has shown great interest in the education of clinical chemists. The prize has been awarded annually since 1976. It is awarded to the student enrolled in the Biomedical Science course who attains the best aggregate in the subjects 91344 Medical and Diagnostic Biochemistry and 91345 Biochemistry, Genes and Disease. The prize consists of a cash award of $250 and one year’s subscription to Path Report.

Australian Institute of Physics Prize
The NSW Branch of the Australian Institute of Physics has made available an annual award to the student who achieves the best mark in the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Applied Physics course. The prize is a cash award of $400 plus one year’s free membership of the Australian Institute of Physics.

Australian Society for Parasitology Prize
This prize was established in 2001 and is awarded to the student enrolled in an undergraduate degree at the University who achieves the highest mark for the subject 91352 Parasitology, provided that the grade obtained is not lower than Distinction. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate and cash award of $400.

Biotechnology Prize
This prize was established in 2000 by Dr Iain Stevenson, former course director of the Biotechnology degree, and is awarded annually to the graduating student from the Biotechnology degree courses who achieves the highest weighted average mark in 91314 General Microbiology, 91330 Epidemiology and Public Health Microbiology and 91369 Biobusiness and Environmental Biotechnology, provided that the weighted average mark is at Distinction level or higher. The prize consists of a suitably inscribed certificate and a cash award of $250.

Carina Clarke Memorial Staff Prize for Environmental Science
This prize was established in 2005 by the staff of the Department of Environmental Sciences to commemorate the academic life of their former colleague Dr Carina Clarke. Carina had a passion for the environment and for teaching Australian youth of the importance of planning for the future. The award is made annually to the student achieving the highest aggregate weighted mark in the first year of study in an environmental sciences program at UTS, based on the subjects 91101 Cells, Genetic and Evolution, 91151 Plants, People and the Environment, 66102 Introduction to Earth Systems and 91102 Animal Function and Diversity. The prize consists of a cash award of $300.

China Books Prize
This prize was established in late 2002 and is awarded to the student enrolled in the Bachelor of Health Science in Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) course who achieves the highest weighted average mark in all TCM subjects up to the end of the second year. The prize is a voucher for the purchase of books to the value of $250.

CIBA Specialty Chemicals – Industrial Training Scholarship
The purpose of this scholarship is to allow students currently undertaking the Diploma in Scientific Practice to obtain full-time training at CIBA Specialty Chemicals for up to 12 months. The scholarship is valued at $20,000 and is available from time to time.

Colin Field Prize
This prize was established in 1989 by Emeritus Professor Colin Field, former Dean of the Faculty of Life Sciences and Head of the School of Biological and Biomedical Sciences. The prize is awarded annually to the Biomedical Science, Environmental Biology or Biotechnology student who obtains the highest overall average mark from all subjects undertaken in Stages 1 and 2. The prize has a cash value of $250.

CSL (Commonwealth Serum Laboratories) Prize
This prize was established in 1990. It is awarded to the graduating student from the Faculty who attains the highest aggregate mark in the subject 91129 Transfusion Science, with a mark at Distinction level or higher. The prize has a cash value of $250.

CSL Transfusion Science Essay / Debate Prize
This prize was established in 2002 and is awarded to the student enrolled in any science course who obtains the highest weighted average mark for the essay component on completion of the subject 91129 Transfusion Science. The prize is an inscribed certificate plus $500 to cover expenses for attending the annual National Immunohaematology Continuing Education meeting held in Albury.

Department of Natural Resources Prize
This prize was first established as the Department of Water Resources Prize in 1990. It is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Biological and Biomedical Sciences courses who obtains the highest average mark in the subjects 91116 Wildlife Ecology, 91119 Terrestrial Ecosystems, and 91120 GIS and Remote Sensing, provided that the average mark is at Distinction level or higher. The prize has a cash value of $250.

DFC Thompson Memorial Prize
This prize was established by the Pharmpro Production Group to commemorate the contribution of the late Des Thompson to the pharmaceutical industry and is awarded annually to the student who, upon completion of Stage 5 in the Applied Chemistry degree course, obtains the highest weighted average mark for subjects in Stages 3, 4 and 5 of the course. The prize consists of a suitably inscribed certificate, together with a cash prize of $1,500.

Dominic Cheng Memorial Award for Aquatic Ecology
This prize was established in 2005 following a bequest by a former member of the academic staff, Professor Dominic Cheng, Professor Cheng was a former Dean of the Faculty of Life Sciences at UTS and was a member of the staff from 1975 until his retirement in 2004. The award is made annually to the student achieving the highest mark in the subject 91121 Aquatic Ecology, recognising Dominic’s long contribution to the study of algae in the aquatic environment. The bequest allows for the nominated subject to be revised if the environmental program is restructured, provided that a component of algal ecology is included. The prize consists of a cash award from the bequest.
Environmental Biology Prize
This prize was established anonymously in 1984. The prize has a cash value of $250 and is awarded to the student enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Environmental Biology who obtains the highest average mark in Stages 3 to 6 of the degree course.

Foseco Prize
This prize was established in 1982 by Foseco Pty Ltd as an incentive to students engaged in studies in the field of Materials Science. The prize is offered annually and is awarded to the student who achieves the highest aggregate mark in the subject 67407 Physical Properties of Materials. The prize consists of a cash award of $500.

Foundation for Australian Resources Prizes
The Foundation for Australian Resources is an independent non-profit organisation whose nominated beneficiary is the Faculty of Science. The Foundation has made available a prize valued at $250 for the best graduating student from the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Mathematics degree.

Hatrick-Jotun Prize
This prize (formerly the Hatrick Fiberfil Prize in Design and Materials Selection) was re-established in 1986 and is awarded to the student who achieves the best performance in the subject 67608 Composites. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Hatrick-Reichhold Prize in Polymer Technology
This prize was established in 1984 by A C Hatrick Chemicals Pty Ltd as an incentive to students studying in the field of polymers and resin technology. The prize is awarded to the student who achieves the best performance in the subject 67409 Polymer Technology. The cash value of the prize is $250.

Helio Supply Co. Prize
This prize is awarded to the graduating student from the Bachelor of Health Science in Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) course who obtains the highest weighted average mark for TCM subjects in the final year. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate, together with a cash prize of $250 and a $250 credit account with Helio Supply Co.

John Pym Prize for Environmental Remediation
This prize, established in 2006 by Sydney Olympic Park Authority, is available for award for the first time in 2007 to the student achieving the highest combined mark in two subjects: 91159 Environmental Forensics and 91113 Ecosystem Protection. The aggregate mark is determined from the first enrolled attempt at each subject. The prize is available to all undergraduate students in the Faculty who complete the two subjects. It has a cash value of $300.

Loctite Australia Prize
This prize was established in 1983 and is awarded annually to the student who achieves the best performance in the subject Surface Chemistry of Materials. The prize has a cash value of $1,000.

Materials Australasia Prize
Established in 1983, this prize is awarded annually to the student who achieves the highest mark in the subject 67303 Mechanical Properties of Materials. The prize consists of a cash award of $200 and one year’s membership of the Institute of Materials Engineering Australasia.

McGraw-Hill Prize for Environmental Science
This prize was established in 2005 and is to be awarded to the student achieving the highest aggregate mark in the three subjects 91101 Cells, Genetics and Evolution, 91102 Animal Function and Diversity, and 91153 Catchment Ecosystems. The aggregate mark is determined from the first enrolled attempt at each subject and, for full-time students, would normally take place in the same calendar year. Part-time students are eligible for the award upon completion of Stages 1 and 2. Students gaining advance entry into the degrees offered are only eligible if they undertake at least two of the subjects. Provided the aggregate mark is a High Distinction grade, a prize of $1,000 is offered; if the aggregate mark is below High Distinction grade, a prize of $500 is offered.

M Y Ali Prize in Cytopathology
This prize (previously known as M Y Ali Prize in Diagnostic Cytology) was established in 1978 by Dr M Y Ali, former Associate Head of the School of Life Sciences at the NSW Institute of Technology, who was responsible for the introduction and initial development of studies in diagnostic cytology. It is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Biomedical Science degree course who achieves the highest mark in the subjects 91130 Cytopathology Part A and 91131 Cytopathology Part B, provided that the mark is not less than a Credit. The prize consists of a cash award of $200 and a suitably inscribed certificate. (Note: These subjects are not offered in 2007.)

New South Wales Police Service Prize
This prize was established in 1997 by the New South Wales Police Service Education and Training Command. It is awarded to the student enrolled in the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Applied Chemistry – Forensic Science who obtains the highest weighted average mark for the forensic examination of physical evidence subjects. The prize consists of a suitably inscribed certificate together with a cash award of $500.

Pasminco Metals Prize
This prize was established in 1990. It is awarded to the student enrolled in one of the Physical Sciences courses who obtains the highest aggregate mark in the subject 65062 Extractive Metallurgy. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Pfizer Achievement Award
This prize was established in 1997 by Pfizer Pty Ltd. It is awarded to the student enrolled in either the Applied Chemistry degree course or the Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Applied Chemistry – Forensic Science who achieves the highest mark in the subject 65508 Organic Chemistry 2, provided that the grade obtained is not lower than a Distinction. The prize has a cash value of $1,000.

Physics Staff Prize
This prize was established in 1985. It is awarded each year to the student in the Applied Physics degree course who obtains the highest average mark in Stages 1–4 of the course. The prize has a cash value of $250.

RACI Industrial Chemistry Group Prize for Environmental Chemistry
This prize, established in 2001, is awarded to the student enrolled in an undergraduate degree who achieves the highest mark for the subject 65621 Environmental Chemistry, provided that the grade obtained is not lower than a Distinction. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate and a cash award of $500.
RACI Undergraduate Prize for Academic Excellence in Analytical Chemistry
This annual prize, established in 2003, is awarded to the student studying for either a Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Applied Chemistry, or Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Applied Chemistry – Forensic Science degree, who has completed the subject 65606 Analytical Chemistry 3 in the year for which the award is made, and who has achieved the highest aggregate in the subjects 65306 Analytical Chemistry 1, 65409 Analytical Chemistry 2 and 65606 Analytical Chemistry 3. The prize has a cash value of $500.

R F G MacMillan Award
This prize was established in 1991. It is awarded for the best Honours project in the field of materials science. The prize has a cash value of $500.

Robert K Murphy Research Fund
To perpetuate the name of Dr R K Murphy, who was for 25 years Lecturer-in-Charge of the Chemistry Department and subsequently Principal of Sydney Technical College, the Sydney Technical College Science Association sponsored a fund to be known as the Robert K Murphy Research Fund, to which a number of chemical industries also subscribed. The income from the fund has been applied to set up the following prizes and a scholarship:

Robert K Murphy Prize
This prize is awarded annually to the student in the Applied Chemistry degree course who entered the course on completion of the Chemistry Certificate of the TAFE Commission and who achieves the best overall performance in the Applied Chemistry degree. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Robert K Murphy Research Prize
This prize is awarded annually to the student in the Applied Chemistry degree course who submits the best original chemistry project. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Robert K Murphy Research Scholarship
This scholarship is awarded annually to the student in the Applied Chemistry degree course who satisfies the Trustees that such a scholarship is warranted to assist the student in research, investigation or advanced study. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Roche Award for Excellence in Pharmacology
This prize, established in late 2002, is awarded to the student with the highest mark in 91707 Pharmacology 1. The prize is a suitably inscribed certificate plus $300.

Safety Institute of Australia Ratcliffe Prize
This prize is awarded for the best aggregate result in the Master of Occupational Health and Safety Management course. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Sam Huxham Memorial Prize
This prize was established in 1994 in memory of Samuel Hugh Huxham, who joined the NSW Institute of Technology in 1971 and was Head of the Statistics and Operations Research Unit at the time of his death in May 1994. It is awarded each year for the best performance in the Statistics major by a student who completed the Bachelor of Science in Mathematics degree in the preceding year. The prize has a cash value of $250.

Schering Plough Prize
This prize was established in 1990. It is awarded to the student enrolled in an Advanced Chemistry project in the Applied Chemistry course who presents the best project seminar (in terms of both technical merit and presentation). The prize has a cash value of $250.

Stanton Coalstad Prize
This prize is awarded annually to the student who obtains the highest mark in the subject 67101 Introduction to Materials at his or her first attempt. The prize is valued at $500 and comprises a cash award and a book voucher.

Sun Ten Prize
Established in 2003, this prize is awarded annually to the student who obtains the highest weighted average mark in all Chinese herbal medicine related subjects within the Bachelor of Health Sciences in Traditional Chinese Medicine. The prize consists of Sun Ten products to the value of $500.

Surface Coatings Association of Australia (SCAA) Memorial Trust Prize
This prize was established in 2002 and is awarded to students enrolled in any stage of an undergraduate or Honours science course in any subject in science on coatings, polymers, pigments or corrosion who obtain the highest weighted average mark for a project report, substantial essay, or a paper or conference/workshop presentation. The prize is an inscribed certificate together with a cash award of $1,000.

Sydney Environmental and Soil Laboratory Prize in Urban Horticulture
This prize is awarded to the graduating student from the Bachelor of Science in Environmental and Urban Horticulture course who obtains the highest weighted average mark in Stages 3–6 of the course at Credit level or above. The prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate, together with a cash prize of $300.

Symbion Laverty Prize in Biomedical Science
This prize was established in 1984 by Macquarie Pathology Services Pty Ltd. It is awarded annually to the student who obtains the highest weighted average mark in Stages 3–6 of the degree course leading to the award of Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Science. The prize includes a cash award of $500 and a medal.

Symbion Laverty Prize in Pathology
This prize was established in 1982 by Dr David Sugerman. It is awarded annually to the student enrolled in the Biomedical Science degree course who obtains the highest aggregate in the subjects 91354 Anatomical Pathology, 91351 Immunology I and 91355 Haematology I, provided that the student reaching the highest aggregate has an average mark of not less than a Credit. The prize consists of a cash award of $500 and a medal.

Western Mining Corporation Prize [Geology]
This prize was established in 1986 to recognise the importance of fieldwork in the study of Earth Sciences. It is awarded annually to the student achieving the highest weighted average mark in a senior undergraduate Earth Sciences subject that includes an assessable fieldwork component. The prize has a cash value of $200.
Workcover Authority Prize

Awarded for the highest aggregate mark in the first year of study in the Master of Occupational Health and Safety Management course, this prize is in the form of a suitably inscribed certificate, together with a cash prize of $500.
